PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT
April 7, 2020

Downtown Transit Center waiting area closed until further notice

To promote social distancing, and for the health of Juneau riders and bus operators, the Downtown Transit Center waiting area will be closed until further notice. The closure goes into effect April 8. Capital Transit understands the inconvenience this may cause, but appreciates the community’s understanding and patience.

As a reminder, Capital Transit has limited bus capacity to 9 riders and CAPITAL AKcess has limited van capacity to 2 riders. Riders should only use public transportation for essential trips, such as:

- healthcare appointments and pharmacy visits
- grocery shopping
- employment at a critical job

For more information, contact Capital Transit at 789-6901. For local news, information, and resources to help keep Juneau safe and healthy, go to juneau.org/covid-19.
