Trip Planning – 3 Easy Ways

1. Use this guide.
• Use the system map to decide what route or routes connect where you are and where you want to go.
• Use the matching color schedules to see when and where to catch the bus.

2. Visit Juneautransit.org and use our easy trip planner.

3. Use Google Maps on your Smartphone or computer. Just click on the transit icon for detailed bus directions.

Transfers

You can transfer between Capital Transit routes at the Federal Building or at Nugget Mall. There is no additional charge for a transfer, but you must let the driver know when you pay your fare.

Holidays

No Transit Service
• New Year’s Day
• Memorial Day
• Independence Day
• Labor Day
• Thanksgiving Day
• Christmas Day

Bikes on the Bus

• All buses are equipped with bike racks.
• Bike racks hold 2 bikes and are provided on a space available basis.
• For information about how to use the bike racks visit our website.
• Bikes are not allowed on the bus between South Franklin Street and the Federal Building.
• See www.juneautransit.org for a map of bike cycle routes or pick up a free paper map at the ferry terminal, Cycle Alaska, visitors bureau, or the airport.

Tips for Safe Riding

• If you’re catching the bus in the dark, a flashlight or reflective clothing will help the driver see you.
• Please do not walk in front of the bus after leaving. Allow the bus to leave before crossing the street.
• Strollers must be folded before boarding the bus.
• Please reserve the front seats for seniors, persons with disabilities and others with special needs.
• Service animals are allowed on the bus. Pets must be in an approved pet carrier.
• Capital Transit has a Code of Conduct. Please follow the Code and enjoy the Ride. For a copy of the Public Use of Municipal Transit System visit www.juneautransit.org.
